More about me, your instructor for this class.

Katrina Hamer lives in Vancouver, WA with husband Craig and cat Mac. They have 2 adult children. She learned to sew in home-ec many years ago. While she hated that first project, she loved sewing and spent time creating garments and home dec items. Katrina's introduction into the world of quilting came in 1990 when she took a class to make a quilted vest. From 2000-2006, she was a consultant for Hewlett Packard's printing on fabric project, testing printers, fabrics and creating samples. In 2003, she co-led 7 printing on fabric seminars with Joe Hesch of Hewlett Packard Co., at the Sewing and Stitchery Expo in Puyallup. For the next 5 years she taught printing on fabric classes, beginning digital photography classes and Electric Quilt classes at Quilt Market & Festival in Houston, Texas. In 2006, she led fabric printing classes/ seminars for regional and WA state 4-H leaders. Katrina taught classes at the Northwest Quilting Expo in Portland, Oregon in 2005, 2006, 2010 and 2011. Katrina continues to teach EQ7 and leads several EQ clubs in the Portland, OR area.
